

Linda Robinson Scholarship Recipients

As of March 23, 2017

Linda Robinson was a woman ahead of her time who entered the Specialty Advertising industry when only a handful of women were in the business. She took advantage of every opportunity offered by the industry to build a successful business, earning not only the respect of her peers but attracting many friends throughout the years. She played an important part in shaping the growth of SAAGNY, including a term as President and was well on her way toward making an impact on the Board of PPAI. Linda was an outstanding individual endowed with vision, talent, and imagination. Her legacy to the industry is perpetuated by the Linda Robinson Scholarship Fund established by the SAAGNY Board of Directors in 1995 after her untimely death.

The award is given to attend PPAI's North American Leadership Conference and has a maximum value of $2,500.
