

DISTRIBUTOR HOSPITALITY SUITES

Tuesday • May 17, 2022
Metropolitan Pavilion, New York City

A limited number of hospitality suites are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Each booth will have 8' tall draped walls on the sides and back. The front wall will have a baffled opening to allow easy access and egress while still maintaining your privacy. For 2022, we have a limited number of suites available in two sizes - a standard 10' x 10', a larger 10' x 20' size. Reserve your hospitality booth today - once sold out, no more will be made available!

The hospitality booths will have signage identifying each by New York City street name only - they will not reference individual distributor names. For example, the booths will be named and signs will read "Lexington Avenue", "Broadway", "Madison Avenue" and so on. When inviting your clients, you can invite them to meet you in your assigned street name.

Each hospitality booth includes the furniture listed below and a New York City themed booth identification sign. Additional tables and chairs are available (see below). You may, at your discretion and expense, provide promotional products to your invited clients. You may provide refreshments and use any food service provider you desire or bring snacks/refreshments with you. SAAGNY will be once again providing a gourmet lunch.
